National Family Development Credential® Program's

Instructor & Advisor Training Institute

September 16-19, 2024

Seattle, Washington

The 2024 FDC fall training opportunity will be offered in the exciting city of Seattle.

A 4-day training will prepare you to become certified to teach the Empowerment Skills for Family Workers curriculum. Once trained, you will be able to help Head Start and Community Action Family Workers meet their training requirements and needs of the community by earning their FDC™.

- ◆ Hosted by National FDC Trainer, Ms. Sue Pappas
- ◆ A 4-day in-person interactive training for $975. Early bird discount $875.
- ◆ Stay and train at the same convenient location downtown.
- ◆ Special room block rates for FDC participants at $199/night.

Come join us for a great opportunity to meet and work with others in your field for a memorable experience.

All applications must be submitted for approval before 8/16. Early bird application deadline is 7/12. Limited spaces are available.

If you have any questions please contact National FDC Program office at nationalfdc@uconn.edu
